This is the Black Pug section of the Pine Tree Council website: www.pinetreesa.org. Using the link will get you right to the place you need to find. Registering on line helps the council to prepare and provide an accurate count of participants. Activity Fee is $10 per person which includes your patch, park fees, and awards, and program materials.

It's Winter: Dress in layers and hydrate

No question we will be out in the elements whether it is cool, cold or mighty cold. All Scouts should dress in layers, bring gloves and hats, wear boots. Sunny conditions can be deceiving as the terrain may be frozen or messy and the wind can change the effect of even cool temps. You should also remember to hydrate.

Bring your own lunch

Troops should bring their own lunch. Bringing stoves to make a hot meal is always a good idea. We will have a warming fire going all day, but meals and cooking equipment are a unit responsibility.

Water

Water has been secured for the winter at Bradbury Mountain State Park. Troops should be sure to bring all water they need for drinking, cooking, and cleaning.

Get to know your Arrowmen Hosts

The Casco Bay Chapter of Madockawanda Lodge, Order of the Arrow, are our hosts for the Klondike Derby.

The staff at each activity station are all youth members of Scouting's Honor Society, the Order of the Arrow. You may know some of them from one of our council camp staffs or because they are a member of your troop. Each became a member after achieving first class rank, completing fifteen days and nights of Scout camping over two years, demonstrating their willingness to live the Scout Oath and Law.

Members of the Order of the Arrow are elected by their fellow troop members. To find out more about scheduling an election in your troop, contact our Chapter Chief or advisor.
